The Four-Way Test

The Rotary Four-Way Test Speech Contest was conceived as a mean for Rotarians to support students to make healthy choices in the ethical issues that they face in everyday life as teens. The speech contest enable Rotarians to reward teens who not only set healthy and ethical life goals for themselves but who also seek to influence their peers in a positive way.

The Rotary Four-Way Test of the things, we think, say or do

Is it the TRUTH?
Is it FAIR to all concerned?
Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

The purpose of the Four-Way Test Speech Contest is to foster the principle of ethics in everyday life as well as in business. The contest is designed to introduce high school students to Rotary by creating interest through a competitive speech contest, sponsored by their local Rotary club.

The specific goals of the contest are:

- To acquaint a large number of youth with Rotary and specially, the tenets of the Four-Way Test
- To demonstrate and enhance Rotarians' commitment to youth
- To heighten awareness of Rotary among students, parents, school officials, and the community at large.
- To recognize, encourage and reward hard work and accomplishment in our youth.
- To provide an opportunity for Rotarians to participate in a Community/Vocational Service program which focuses on the Four-Way Test as our standard of behavior.

GUIDELINES FOR CLUB CHAIRS

It is important for you to begin NOW to recruit student contestants from your public and private high schools. Local High School Counselors, English teachers, Speech teachers, drama teachers, and Interact Advisors should be contacted during the school year for student participation. An advertising form is included for this notification.

PROCEDURE:

- A. Sponsoring clubs will give each contestant a copy of 'Guidelines for Contestants' to help prepare them for a four to six minute speech based on the scholarship guidelines.
- B. Local club competition may be held in one round. Subsequent rounds can be held at the club's option. Presentation before a live audience will likely be helpful to the contestant selected for District competition since it is open and uses a forensic competition format.
- C. Hold local Four-Way Test Speech Competition January through mid-March, however some teachers may build this program into their fall curriculum.
- D. Recommend arranging pre-competition of entrants from all schools in front of a judging panel. Contestants should draw for positions for the order of their speeches in the club contest. The judging panel can be made up of six or nine club volunteers. Tabulate scores immediately at end of competition (10-15 minutes). As each participating student has put a lot of energy and effort into participating, sincerely thank all students for participating and announce finalists to present in front of your club membership (ideally within 3 to 5 days).
- E. Club Final Competition:
You may be amazed by the improvement each contestant will make in his/her delivery following the preliminary round. It is with this understanding I encourage you to have a preliminary round, even if you only have a few students participating. Invite parents of participating students, principals, speech and English teachers. Score immediately after close of club meeting and call results to participants' schools if they have not had a representative in attendance. Prepare letters and certificates for all participating students, letters to teachers and principals. Advise second place finisher to remain ready to fill-in at District if first place finisher is not able.
